

I oppose the Consumer Bankers Association petition to override the Indiana No-Call Law. The commercial interests of bankers should not override the sacred right to privacy in one's own home.